

SOUTH AFRICAN RESERVE BANK

South African Reserve Bank: Monetary Policy Schools Challenge (MPC Schools Challenge) Entry and Consent Form

|                            |                |
|----------------------------|----------------|
| Name of school:     |                |
| Name of province:          |                |
| School's Principal: | Office number: |
| District            |                |
| Cellphone:                 | Fax number:    |
| Email address:      |                |

|                                    |                |
|------------------------------------|----------------|
| Grade 12 Economics Teacher: | Office number: |
| Cellphone number:                  | Fax number:    |
| Email address:                     |                |

| MPC Schools Challenge Team members' details |                  |                   |
|--|------------------|-------------------|
| Full Name  | Identity number: | Cellphone number: |
|  |                  |                   |
|  |                  |                   |
|  |                  |                   |
|  |                  |                   |

Terms and conditions:

1. By entering the MPC Schools Challenge, the participating school and all its team members agree to be bound by the terms, conditions, rules and requirements set out herein and as are available on the South African Reserve Bank (SARB) website at <http://www.resbank.co.za>. Any failure to comply with these terms, conditions, rules and requirements may result in immediate disqualification.
2. Should it be found that any team member has acted dishonestly in any manner, or that a teacher has provided any assistance with an essay/policy statement, the relevant participating school and all team members of the school will be disqualified.
3. MPC statements must be submitted to the SARB at the address stipulated in this Entry and Consent Form. The deadline for submission of MPC statements is at 20:00 by the date stipulated in this Entry and Consent Form.

4. SARB's decision in respect of the finalists or winners of the MPC Schools Challenge will be final.
5. SARB does not make any representation or any warranty that any entry or participation will result in the winning of a prize.
6. SARB reserves the right to cancel, terminate or suspend the MPC Schools Challenge at any time on written notice.
7. The SARB is committed to protect the privacy of personal information of persons whose personal information it processes. The SARB will process the personal information of the school, its personnel and its team members in compliance with the prescripts of the Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 of 2013 (POPIA), read together with the SARB's privacy policy which is available at Policy Template - with Instructions \(resbank.co.za\).
8. Unless SARB is otherwise advised in writing, permission is hereby granted for SARB to:
  - a. process (and further process) personal information (as defined in POPIA) of the participating school, its personnel and its team members for purposes of and in relation to the MPC Schools Challenge;
  - b. hold interviews, take photographs and record video footage of the participating school's personnel and its team members in relation to the MPC Schools Challenge;
  - c. use and publish all information of the participating school, its personnel and its team members, as well as interviews, quotes, photographs, video footage or the like ("products") held or taken of the participating school's personnel and/or its team members as SARB may deem fit, at all times acting reasonably; and
  - d. use, edit, publish, store, retain and reuse the said products for non-profit, non-commercial purposes, including in print, online and social media, and all other forms of media.
9. Unless directly caused by any act or omission by the SARB or any of its employees, the participating school and its team members assume all risk of injury, harm or loss of any kind arising from participation in the MPC Schools Challenge, including but not limited to the use of any venues and transportation facilities offered, hired or arranged by SARB for purposes of the MPC Schools Challenge.
10. SARB and its employees shall not be liable for any incidental, indirect or consequential loss, damage, claim or expense of whatsoever nature which may be suffered in relation to or as a result of the participation in the MPC Schools Challenge.
11. The participating school and its team members hereby, jointly and severally, indemnify and keep the SARB indemnified from and against any loss or damage suffered or liability that may arise, without limitation, in respect of a claim against SARB by any third party by reason of an act or omission on the part of the school, its personnel or any of its team members in respect of or resulting from the participation in the MPC Schools Challenge.
12. By signing this Entry and Consent Form, the participating school and its team members acknowledge that they have read and understand the above terms and conditions, as well as the rules and requirements of the MPC Schools Challenge.

_____

For and on behalf of the School by

_____

Signature and Date

_____ [full names and surname]

_____ [capacity of signatory]

Please send a copy of this completed form
to:

Sarb-mpcchallenge@resbank.co.za

Closing date for entry into the MPC Challenge is 19 May 2023                  

All entries must reach the SARB by this date.

South African Reserve Bank: Monetary Policy Schools Challenge (MPC Schools Challenge) Entry and Consent Form by the participating school's team member [to be signed by each team member and, if under 18 years old, his/her parent or legal guardian]

Terms and conditions:

1. By entering the MPC Schools Challenge, the participating school and all its team members agree to be bound by the terms, conditions, rules and requirements set out herein and as are available on the South African Reserve Bank (SARB) website at <http://www.resbank.co.za>. Any failure to comply with these terms, conditions, rules and requirements may result in immediate disqualification.
2. Should it be found that any team member has acted dishonestly in any manner, or that a teacher has provided any assistance with an essay/policy statement, the relevant participating school and all team members of the school will be disqualified.
3. MPC statements must be submitted to the SARB at the address stipulated in this Entry and Consent Form. The deadline for submission of MPC statements is at 17:00 by the date stipulated in this Entry and Consent Form.
4. SARB's decision in respect of the finalists or winners of the MPC Schools Challenge will be final.
5. SARB does not make any representation or any warranty that any entry or participation will result in the winning of a prize.
6. SARB reserves the right to cancel, terminate or suspend the MPC Schools Challenge at any time on written notice.
7. The SARB is committed to protect the privacy of personal information of persons whose personal information it processes. The SARB will process the personal information of the school, its personnel and its team members in compliance with the prescripts of the Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 of 2013 (POPIA), read together with the SARB's privacy policy which is available at Policy Template - with Instructions \(resbank.co.za\).
8. Unless SARB is otherwise advised in writing, permission is hereby granted for SARB to:
  - a. process (and further process) personal information (as defined in POPIA) of the participating school, its personnel and its team members for purposes of and in relation to the MPC Schools Challenge;
  - b. hold interviews, take photographs and record video footage of the participating school's personnel and its team members in relation to the MPC Schools Challenge;
  - c. use and publish all information of the participating school, its personnel and its team members, as well as interviews, quotes, photographs and video footage or the like ("products") held or taken of the participating school's personnel and/or its team members as SARB may deem fit, at all times acting reasonably; and
  - d. use, edit, publish, store, retain and reuse the said products for non-profit, non-commercial purposes, including in print, online and social media, and all other forms of media.
9. Unless directly caused by any act or omission by the SARB or any of its employees, the participating school and its team members assume all risk of injury, harm or loss of any kind arising from participation in the MPC Schools Challenge, including but not limited to the use of any venues and transportation facilities offered, hired or arranged by SARB for purposes of the MPC Schools Challenge.
10. SARB and its employees shall not be liable for any incidental, indirect or consequential loss, damage, claim or expense of whatsoever nature which may be suffered in relation to or as a result of the participation in the MPC Schools Challenge.

11. The participating school and its team members hereby, jointly and severally, indemnify and keep the SARB indemnified from and against any loss or damage suffered or liability that may arise, without limitation, in respect of a claim against SARB by any third party by reason of an act or omission on the part of the school, its personnel or any of its team members in respect of or resulting from the participation in the MPC Schools Challenge.
12. By signing this Entry and Consent Form, the participating school and its team members acknowledge that they have read and understand the above terms and conditions, as well as the rules and requirements of the MPC Schools Challenge.

---

Grade 12 Team member's Full name and Surname

Signature and Date

Herein assisted by his/her parent or legal guardian (applicable only if team member is under 18 years old):

---

Full name and surname

Signature and Date

_____ [capacity of signatory]