

South African Reserve Bank

SARB Public Notice

Members of the public wanting to exchange mutilated banknotes and exchange older series banknotes withdrawn from circulation will no longer be able to access these services at the SARB Head Office due to the construction project. However, they can access the above-mentioned services at their commercial banks that have designated branches. Find the list below.

Selling of Krugerrands

Members of the public who want to sell Krugerrands can do so through authorised coin dealers, a list of which can be found here: <http://www.samint.co.za/collectable-coins/authorised-dealers/>

Please note that all banknotes and coins issued since 1961, by the SARB remain legal tender in South Africa. The SARB does not buy back circulation coins.
